

Woman:
THE FEMALE SPIRIT OF HUMANITY©
By Ivonne Delaflor (Aka) Swami Amenai

Humanity is in a process of timely awakening. The latest wars, and the suffering increased by a distant feeling of oneness, political abuses, lack of healthy rituals and fragmentation of a conscious community have lead us to feelings of separation, incessant life struggles and distant feelings towards the collective family.

In this most important times, women all over the world, are inviting each other to rise their voices to speak of their truth reaching out for nurturing heart ways to cease all fragmentation while befriending each other in arms of love.

Women are recovering their personal power and with this they are becoming true role models for civilization of endurance, courage, serenity, empowerment and wisdom. Essences , that are extremely important for our civilization to coexist in harmony within the unity on diversity that we all are.

Women, the divine grail of the female spirit of humanity, hold in their heart the power of dreaming the best of life for all children.

Reaching out to others, to serve and help those in need...starting with reaching out woman to woman in a non violent and supporting way... the community of the female spirit, gets stronger and includes in it healing in all doorways of successful possibilities in all life areas: call it spiritual, professional, and/or personal.

Woman, in the history of humanity has sacrificed her power due to social expectations and requirements of dogma...and beliefs of traditions. Yet the time has come for unification, for actualization and healing all male-female rifts in a peaceful way, where real power is revealed by empowering other fellow beings, in non violent ways.

Woman: a jewel for rebirth and nurturance, is awakening in her divine godhead nature...the Buddha within, that has no gender, finally smiling with a glance of hope towards the brilliant future for all girls and all children of the planet.

It is in the NOW , when women can unite and awaken within the vision of humanity rebirthing in love, respect and equality that will eventually take place as the female spirit of humanity leads with love the path of the children. We as women have the responsibility to befriend our power and speak of our truth. As we awake and leave the comfort of old beliefs and paradigms, just like the Buddha who left all comforts of his palace to search for the inner truth that was burning in him and calling him for his own awakening, we women walk the path of transmutation and transformation where the female spirit of humanity is not only respected yet also recognized as the power that will ultimately rebirth humanity in the arms of love.

©Reproductions permitted: www.ivonedelaflor.com
For more information: info@ivonedelaflor.com

Ivonne Delaflor

Founder

Mastery Life non Profit Organization

Author: Divine mother

And Sacred messages For The Parents of the World.

www.trascendentalinquiry.com

www.masterylife.com

©Reproductions permitted: www.ivonedelaflor.com

For more information: info@ivonedelaflor.com